

"Thanks to LIGHTS, we can breathe a little easier knowing that our sons are in a safe and protected environment"
Donald Hale, parent

LIGHTS is providing families with opportunities to help their child or family member achieve independence by living in their own home with the support of their families, friends and caregivers.

Part of the magic of LIGHTS is the perfect partnership between donors, families, agencies and government and ensuring that fundraised dollars go directly to support individuals and their pursuit of a home.

Without our donors we would not be able to continue our vision of providing innovative services and supports to people with an intellectual disability.

On October 23, 2012 we had the opportunity to say thank you to our donors for making our LIGHTS dream a reality.

Excerpt from Ian Brown's remarks:

"LIGHTS is about finding a community in which your child can feel like a human being. To find a real community that will be there when you are not there to take care of them. The great hope you are all supporting through LIGHTS is community and that is always worth fighting for. For your embrace of that deepest of all causes, I just want to say thank you. Not just for your money, but for your example." (October 23, 2013)
